In beau-ty and a-bun-dance, Lord, You made this world re-sound With [To] you, Lord, let us now a-scribe With heart-felt gra-ti-(tude), Our [Your] pres-ence Lord, we ask of you, In times of deep-est (need). Stretch [If] we would keep your Word, O Lord, Let glo-ry be ful-filled: That crea-tures sing-ing songs of love and wind's me-lod-ic sound, So, cher-ished friends and fam-i-ly Whose kin-ship is our food. With out your lov-ing hand a-broad, Make dark and doubt re-cede. Through we may see you face-to-face, E-ter-nal, in your will; And we, your peo-ple rec-og-nize Your good-ness knows no them, you give us strength to serve The suff-ring mul-ti-your re-demp-tive act of love We trust that we are live in that bright dwell-ing place Where hosts are sing-ing
